Conditional In-Principle Settlement – Australian Case

IMF Bentham Limited (IMF) announces an in-principle settlement of an enforcement of a judgment debt. The settlement is conditional on the parties signing a settlement deed recording the settlement terms.

IMF currently expects, subject to the Settlement becoming legally binding and unconditional to generate gross income of approximately $1.8 million, resulting in the following metrics:

	Cash basis	P&L basis after capitalised overheads
Gross income	$1.8 m	$1.8 m
Profit	$1.2 m	$1.2 m
ROIC	4.45 x	4.23 x
IRR %	487 %	367 %

This investment is part of IMF's Funds 2 & 3 portfolio.

IMF background

Following the merger of the IMF and Omni Bridgeway operations in November 2019, the combined group is a global leader in dispute resolution finance, with expertise in civil and common law legal and recovery systems, and operations spanning Asia, Australia, Canada, Europe, the Middle East, the UK and the US. IMF and Omni Bridgeway have built their reputations as trusted providers of funding solutions and together offer end-to-end dispute finance from case inception through to post-judgment enforcement and recovery.
